ORDER

Before the Court is the Joint Motion to Stay Pending Outcome of Related Litigation [Doc. No. 11]. The parties request an indefinite stay of this case due to the pendency of cross-motions for summary judgment in a companion case. However, the Court has now issued its summary judgment ruling in that case. See Morgan v. Provident Life & Acc. Ins. Co., Case No. CIV-20-180-D, Order (W.D. Okla. Mar. 30, 2023). Under these circumstances, the Court finds the sole basis for a stay has been overcome by subsequent events and the Joint Motion should be denied without prejudice to a more specific request, if appropriate.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the parties' Joint Motion to Stay Pending Outcome of Related Litigation [Doc. No. 11] is DENIED as set forth herein.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 31st day of March, 2023.

TIMOTHY D. DeGIUSTI
Chief United States District Judge
